

List 5 (medical manipulations)

1. To carry out artificial respiration, indirect massage of the heart;
2. To fix tongue;
3. To stop external bleedings;
4. To carry out primary processing of wounds;
5. To wash stomach, bowels;
6. To carry out transport immobilization;
7. To carry out the injections of medicines (intramuscular, subcutaneous, intravenous jet and drop-by-drop introduction);
8. To measure the arterial pressure;
9. To carry out the primary toilet of newborn;
10. To determine the groups of the blood, the rhesus-belonging.

List 5.1 (dental manipulations)

1. The amputation of the pulp of the permanent teeth;
2. The removal of the dental deposits;
3. The determination of the acid-resistance of the enamel of teeth (TER, CRT- test);
4. The diagnostic using of the dyes;
5. The diathermo-coagulation;
6. The extirpation of the pulp of the permanent teeth;
7. Pulp test;
8. The impregnation of the root canals;
9. The instrumental processing of the root canals of the permanent teeth;
10. The medicamental processing of the struck sections of the mucous membrane of the oral cavity and periodontium;
11. The application of the odontotropic pastes;
12. The application and the removal of temporary fillings and sealed bandages during the treatment of caries, pulpitis, periodontitis;
13. The filling of the carious cavities of permanent teeth with different filling materials;
14. The filling of the root canals of permanent teeth with different materials;
15. The coating of teeth with therapeutic and preventive varnishes, the gels;
16. The preparation of the carious cavities of permanent teeth taking into account the type of the filling material;
17. The preparation and the application of the hardening and nonhardening dressings;
18. The carrying out of the intra-dental electrophoresis;
19. The grinding and the polishing of fillings of all forms of the filling materials.

Head of Conservative Dentistry department NMU professor

A.V.Borysenko